1/13/2022	kidnapping	1	A Nicaraguan asylum seeker, who had been kidnapped and held for ransom in Mexico after being expelled there under Title 42, did not pass an RMX non-refoulment interview and was returned to Ciudad Juárez by CBP in December 2021. The man told the asylum officer conducting the fear interview that he had been kidnapped near the border after being expelled by DHS under Title 42, held captive for eight days, and denied food for more than 24 hours until his family paid a $3,000 ransom. “They said, ‘If you don’t pay, we’ll kill you,’” he told Human Rights First. Mexican police had also twice extorted the man. On one occasion, the Mexican police officers, who extorted and threatened him and other migrants on a bus, abducted two migrant girls.	https://www.humanrightsfirst.org/resource/shameful-record-biden-administration-s-use-trump-policies-endangers-people-seeking-asylum
